

COURSE TUTOR – DANIEL MOULT

Daniel Moulton, “one of the finest organists of our time” (The Organ), is an acclaimed concert organist, recording artist and organ tutor. His musicianship has been praised as “exhilarating” (Gramophone), “dazzling” (The Organ), and “formidable” (Organists’ Review). Based in London, he is the Associate Head of Organ at the Birmingham Conservatoire, teaches through the RCO Academy, and leads masterclasses, workshops and courses around the world.

As a soloist, Daniel performs regularly throughout the UK, Europe, Australia and Singapore. He has pioneered the use of film as a means of promoting organ music, and has presented and performed in two DVD releases. He is currently filming The English Organ, which will be released as a major box set in 2018/19. He has also appeared as a soloist and ensemble player on many CDs, including a performance of one of Handel's organ concerti on Signum Classics, Handel at Vauxhall.

Daniel was born in Manchester and studied at Oxford University and the Amsterdam Conservatorium. He has published several editions, including two organ albums with Bärenreiter. He broadcasts frequently on BBC television and radio and has recorded for various record labels including Signum, Fugue State, Regent and Sony BMG www.danielmoulton.com

* * *

This event is being organised and delivered by the Glasgow Society of Organists, a charity established in 1911 to promote the organ and its music. We are grateful to the churches for use of their premises, organs and facilities, but we would like to clarify that the Church of Scotland and the Scottish Episcopal Church bear no responsibility for the running of the day. Young people up to 18 years old remain the responsibility of their parent(s) at all times.

The Pipe Organ Experience

Come and learn about ‘the King of Instruments’ – the pipe organ

- Hands-on experience – try out an organ for yourself!
- How it works – mechanics, construction, craftsmanship
 - Hear one of the country’s top players!

An opportunity for secondary school students in S4-S6 with Grade 4 piano/keyboard or above

1 October 2017

2:00pm-5:00pm

New Kilpatrick Parish Church
28 Kirk Place Bearsden G61 3RT

A Glasgow Society of Organists event

Format for the day:

- Opening recital & talk – hear and see the organ in amazing close-up!
- Small group tutorials:
 - ⇒ Hands-on – a chance to play a pipe organ at New Kilpatrick or at the nearby Bearsden Cross Church (a short walk away)
 - ⇒ How it works – the mechanics and craftsmanship
 - ⇒ Music for the organ
- Closing event – more spectacular playing from Daniel Moulton!

In addition, the Glasgow Society of Organists is sponsoring organ lessons with a private tutor for participants who want to take their skills further.

Places on the course are limited to 16 participants – first come, first served! Participants should ideally have passed at least Grade 4 exams in piano, organ or keyboard, be a secondary school pupil, and be in S4, S5 or S6 on the date of the event. There is some flexibility around these age limits for outstanding candidates.

For further details please contact the GSO Secretary at secgso1@gmail.com or GSO President Dr Euan McKay at 07718-923547. Further copies of this form can be downloaded from the GSO website at www.iao.org.uk/glasgow/

Personal data from this form shall be held solely for the purposes of administration of the event and follow-up activities, and shall not be shared with any other organization or third party.

TO ENROL: complete this form in black ink and send to Mrs AMA Girvan (GSO Secretary), 13 Whitehill Avenue, Stepps, G33 6BL or email a scan to secgso1@gmail.com - by 25 August 2017

Name
Address
Email – pupil - parent/carer
Mobile – pupil - parent/carer
School
Age (at 1 October 2017)
Music exam grade achieved and date
Instrument examined (piano, keyboard, organ etc)
Any special dietary or other requirements?
Name and signature of parent/carer (if participant is 18 or under at 1 October 2017)